During the 2011 Legislative Session, the Georgia General Assembly passed House Bill 87, a comprehensive piece of legislation intended to address illegal immigration on a state and local level. Many provisions of this new law directly affect cities and counties. This document is required to meet certain aspects of HB 87 and is mandatory. The Georgia law as it relates to businesses is as follows:

- Authorization to conduct a commercial enterprise or business: [O.C.G.A. § 50-36-1(a)(4)(A)(ii)] Business certificate, license, or registration [O.C.G.A. § 50-36-1(a)(4)(A)(iii)] Local governments regulate businesses and tax business. With stated exceptions, “the governing authority of each [city or] county is authorized but not required to provide by local ordinance or resolution for the levy, assessment, and collection of occupation tax on...businesses and practitioners.” O.C.G.A. § 48-13-6(a), (b). Further, with certain limits, “the governing authority of each [city or] county is authorized but not required to provide by local ordinance or resolution for the imposition and collection of regulatory fees on businesses and practitioners of professions and occupations doing business in [its] . . . part of the county.” O.C.G.A. § 48-13-8(a). Section 36-6-60 of the Georgia code requires that persons who are licensed by the state pursuant to Title 43 must present that state license when applying for a municipal and/or county business license. O.C.G.A. § 36-6-60. H.B. 87 adds a requirement that when such licensed persons seek an “occupational tax certificate, or other document required to operate a business” they also must present their state license in doing so. O.C.G.A. § 36-6-6(c). H.B. 87 also added subsection “(d)” to Section 36-6-60 of the Georgia code and now provides in pertinent part that “[b]efore any county or municipal corporation issues or renews a business license, occupation tax certificate, or other document required to operate a business to any person, the person shall provide evidence that he or she is authorized to use the federal work authorization program or evidence that the provisions of the Code section do not apply.” O.C.G.A. § 36-6-6(d). Such evidence “shall be in the form of an affidavit as provided by the Attorney General.” (see below) O.C.G.A. § 36-6-6(f). Persons who knowingly violate this provision may be guilty of certain criminal statutes. O.C.G.A. § 36-6-6(h)

An occupation tax certificate, regulatory permit, taxi cab permit, alcohol license or other license cannot be issued without return of this completed form.
